

REAL ESTATE INVESTOR TO-DO LIST

Treat your real estate investing like a business. Because it is. Write a business plan and set realistic goals

Check your credit and find sources of funding. Traditional lenders, and hard money lenders.

Research your target market area. Determine if the neighborhoods you want to invest in match your financial goals.

Network! You can't build a million dollar business by yourself. Just like any business, successful investors know the importance of great relationships.

Partner with an experienced Realtor that understands the concepts of ROI (return on investment) and NOI (net operating income)

Look for deals everywhere. Don't limit your resources.
